9. Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all class meetings. Students missing a third class must receive permission from the instructor. Students missing more than three units (classes) will fail the class. When a student is unable to attend class, it is a courtesy to notify the instructor in advance. It is the responsibility of the student to obtain and/or make up information and assignments covered in missed classes.

10. Participation Disclaimer

Active participation in class discussions is encouraged. Individual students must determine for themselves the level of disclosure that is appropriate for them. Whenever confidential information is used, students and faculty members are expected to observe the AGS policy concerning the handling of confidential information.

11. Academic Integrity Policy

Students are expected to do their own work on all academic assignments, projects, and tests. Academic dishonesty may result in failure for the work involved, failure for the course and, in the event of a second incident of academic dishonesty, suspension from the Adler Graduate School. The following are examples of academic dishonesty: cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, and plagiarism.

12. Internet/On-Line Activity

12.1 During on-line discussion, follow the same rules concerning protection of confidential information as you would follow in face-to-face discussion.

12.2 During on-line discussion follow the same respectful, effective communication skills you would follow in face-to-face discussion.

13. Nondiscrimination Clause

The Adler Graduate School is an equal opportunity educator and employer. The Adler Graduate School does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, veteran status, or physical disability in the employment of faculty or staff, the admission or treatment of students, or in the operation of its educational programs and activities. The institution is committed to providing equal education and employment opportunities in accordance with all applicable state and federal laws.

14. Learning Accommodations

A student with a documented learning disability (difference) should privately inform the instructor of this difference during the first week of class. The instructor will make reasonable accommodations.
