The Adler Graduate School Announces the Grand Opening of its Expanded Library and Dedication of the New Research Centers:

Café Central – An Adlerian Research Center and
The Harold H. Mosak Adlerian Mastery Lab

April 25, 2015 from 4:30 PM to 8:30 PM CDT

The Adler Graduate School is creating a rich and inspiring place where Adlerians from around the world may gather. The Adler Graduate School’s Library, Café Central and the Harold H. Mosak Adlerian Mastery Lab will celebrate Adlerian Psychology and Adlerian Scholars, including Adlerian Women.

The Adler Graduate School is now home to collections from Dr. Harold H. Mosak, Margot Adler, and Mim Pew. In addition, Ellen Mendel and the Alfred Adler Institute of New York’s Board of Directors have generously donated most of their library collection, which has ultimately become a key part of AGS’s holdings. Dr. Wes Wingett has also made substantial contributions of scholarly resources, and additional collections from other fellow Adlerians have also been promised.

Following a day-long workshop with Marion Balla, please join us for the following events:

4:30 - 5:30 PM  How to Like Yourself, presented by Dr. Harold H. Mosak, one of the world’s foremost Adlerian Scholars and author of numerous works on Adlerian Psychology.

5:30 - 6:15 PM  Social Time, Hors d’ Oeuvres, Self-Guided Tours, and Music with Aaron Swestka.

6:15 - 7:30 PM  Official Dedication of the Research Centers. You will hear from Marion Balla, Dr. Harold H. Mosak, Dr. Jill Duba Sauerheber, President of the North American Society of Adlerian Psychology, Ellen Mendel, President of the Alfred Adler Institute of New York, and Dr. Marina Bluvshtein, the Adler Graduate School’s Director for Adlerian Studies and Online Education.

7:30 - 8:30 PM  Special Evening Program. Following her presentation during the dedication ceremony, Ellen Mendel will invite us to continue the journey to experience the founding and beginnings of the Alfred Adler Institute of New York with its founders and key players. Dr. Jill Duba Sauerheber, president of the North American Society of Adlerian Psychology, will discuss the history of NASAP and will answer questions about joining the organization.

To attend any part of the April 25th events in person, please RSVP to Evelyn Haas at ev@alfredadler.edu.

To attend any part of the April 25th events via webinar, please go to https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/3998570112429706754.

Further information and speakers’ biographies are available at www.alfredadler.edu.

This event is free.

With general questions about the event, or to learn more about opportunities to donate to or otherwise participate in the development of AGS’s Library and Research Centers, please contact Marina.Bluvshtein@alfredadler.edu.