Richard E. Watts, PhD  November 22, 2014 Lectures

On November 22, Dr. Richard E. Watts, one of the world's foremost Adlerian scholars visited Adler Graduate School to present two lectures:

- "Being a Therapeutic Chameleon: An Encouragement-focused Perspective," and
- "Reflecting As If: A Brief, Integrative, Encouragement-focused Counseling Process"

We are happy to make audio recordings of Dr. Watts’s lectures available to you. To access these recordings, select the link for the desired lecture (or paste the link into your browser), enter your name and email address, and click "Register."

1. “Being a Therapeutic Chameleon: An Encouragement-focused Perspective”
   https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/recording/6140945427167375874

2. "Reflecting As If: A Brief, Integrative, Encouragement-focused Counseling Process"
   https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/recording/915392172545984514

Additional information:

- The morning lecture is approximately 2 hours and 15 minutes in length.
- The Afternoon lecture is approximately 1 hour and 15 minutes in length.
- These recordings can be played on Windows computers with Flash Player or Mac with OSX. Please note: the recordings do not play on IOS devices (iPad/iPhone).
- Dr. Watts opened the second lecture (# 2 above - “Reflecting As If…”) by leading the participants in some physical exercise. As a result, the sound is not ideal – you may wish to advance or ignore the first 2 minutes of that recording.
- For technical support, please use this link: http://support.citrixonline.com/webinar