Adler Graduate School

DINNER & A MOVIE!

Friday, April 27 from 6:30 – 9:00 PM at AGS

All are welcome!

The evening will include a showing of
“The Station Agent” and a pizza dinner.

To plan for pizza, please RSVP to: AGSPsychFilmGroup@alfredadler.edu

“The Station Agent” (2003) is a moving comedy about a group of unexpected friends who meet when each person is undergoing a major life transition.

Starring: Peter Dinklage, Patricia Clarkson, Michelle Williams, Bobby Cannavale
Directed by: Thomas McCarthy
Rated: R for language and some drug content
Received Sundance Film Festival Audience Award – Dramatic – in 2003

Psychological focus: Life transitions, grief and loss, discrimination, depression, friendship, courage, social interest

“...A delicate, thoughtful and often hilarious take on loneliness.”
Elvis Mitchell – The New York Times

“[A] beautifully sincere, character-driven film…”
Allison Benedikt – Chicago Tribune

“The best advice to filmgoers who appreciate smart, mature, humanist movies is simply, Go.”
Ann Hornaday – The Washington Post

“Huge feelings are packed into this small, fragile movie. It’s something special.”
Peter Travers – Rolling Stone