

We appreciate your participation in the life of the Adler Graduate School (AGS). Your gift will support the ongoing development and continuous improvement of our educational programs and community initiatives, allowing AGS to fulfill its vision.

OUR MISSION

Preparing mental health and human service professionals with a strong Adlerian foundation to foster encouragement, collaboration, and a sense of belonging to the individuals, families, and the culturally diverse communities they serve.

OUR VISION

The Adler Graduate School will be a leader in empowering and developing mental health and human service professionals to transform society through social interest in action.

WHERE YOUR SUPPORT WILL GO

Adlerian Educational Innovation and Academic Excellence Fund: This fund supports educational innovation and academic excellence. This might include innovation in online education and technology, tele-counseling, or supervised mental health services in communities of need.

President's Discretionary Fund: A fund to support the ongoing needs of Adler Graduate School as determined by the President. This might include Adlerian professional development new technology, activities around community and organizational engagement, social justice activities, diversity and multicultural education and quality education initiatives.

Open Donation Fund: A fund to support the expansion and continuous improvement of Adler Graduate School.

Social Interest, Student Scholarship and Community Fund: This fund supports AGS students who have financial need for degree completion, receive tuition scholarship discounts with our community partners or who plan on long-term community service as a role in their career.

Capital Improvement/Building Fund: A fund to support the ongoing improvement of the physical facility creating an Adlerian Center, open to scholarship, networking and education.

I dedicate my donation to one or more of the following programs and initiatives:

- Adlerian Educational Innovation and Academic Excellence Fund
- Social Interest Student Scholarship and Community Fund
- Capital Improvement/Building Fund
- Presidents Discretionary Fund
- Open Donation Fund
